Hague, August 24. The Army under the Command of Prince Ferdinand entered the Country of Waldeck on the 13th, and directed its march so as to gain the Flank of the Enemy, who was then posted in the Neighbourhood of Cassel, which however M. de Contades thought proper to abandon on the 18th, and seems to be retiring towards Marbourg. On the 19th, Major Friedrichs, of the Hanoverian Chasseurs, summoned that City, which surrendered, after some Cannon Shot, with a Garrison of 400 Men Prisoners of War, together with 1500 Wounded, which the Enemy had been obliged to leave behind them: A very considerable Magazine likewise fell into our Hands there.

Luckner's Hussars, on the 15th, routed a considerable Detachment of the Enemy at Volckmissen.

On the 17th, the Hereditary Prince dislodged from Wofshagen a Part of M. d'Armentieres's Corps; and, on the same Day, the Duke of Holstein took, Sword in Hand, a whole Battalion lion of the Grenadiers Royaux at Naumbourg, in Sight of the Enemy's Army.

General Imhoff is in full March towards Munster, in order to carry on the Siege of that Place.

Hague, August 24. Accounts have been received here from Berlin and Magdebourg, of the 18th Instant, by which the Situation of the King of Prussia, since the Action of the 12th, appears by no Means so bad as had at first been represented: The Russians had not then ventured to make any fresh Attempt, and his Prussian Majesty was employed in taking all possible Measures to maintain his Ground, and was getting together a fresh Supply of Artillery, in which great Part of his Loss had consisted.

Madrid, August 13. On Friday the 10th Instant, a little after Four o'Clock in the Morning, his Catholick Majesty departed this Life at Villa Viciosa.

Treasury Chambers, August 7, 1759.

WHEREAS notwithstanding the several Acts of Parliament now in Force for preventing illegal Lotteries, and the several Convictions of Offenders in pursuance thereof, Information has been lately given to the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, that there is now on Foot in Ireland a Scheme for raising a Sum of Money by the Sale of Tickets or Chances to be determined by the Drawing of the present State Lottery, and that the said Scheme is handed about this Town and other Parts of this Kingdom, and that Tickets or Chances agreeable thereunto are offered to Sale in Defiance and Contempt of the several Acts of Parliament for prohibiting the same; Therefore, in order to put a Stop to such unlawful Proceedings, and to prevent the Ignorant and Unwary from being drawn in by so illegal and pernicious a Practice; This is to inform the Public, that the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have given Directions to their Solicitor to prosecute with the utmost Rigour and Severity of the Law all such as shall be anyways concerned in publishing such Schemes, or buying or selling any such Tickets or Chances. And whereas Mr. John M'Carrick and Mr. Henry Lunn, late of the City of London, were on the 8th of March 1757, convicted of the like Offence, and have ever since absconded in order to avoid the Penalties thereby incurred: Therefore the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury are hereby pleased to offer a Reward of Fifty Pounds, to be paid to any Person or Persons that shall apprehend either of them, on immediate Notice thereof being given to Philip Carteret Webb, Esq; their Solicitor.
